
From: Jason Schaffler <Jason.Schaffler@muckleshoot.nsn.us>
Sent: Monday, April 26, 2021 7:29 PM
To: James Dixon - NOAA Federal
Subject: RE: Question on the Sammamish project

No. Just spring..

Sent via the Samsung Galaxy Note8, an AT&T 5G Evolution capable smartphone

----- Original message -----

From: James Dixon - NOAA Federal <james.dixon@noaa.gov>
Date: 4/26/21 7:27 PM (GMT-08:00)
To: Jason Schaffler <Jason.Schaffler@muckleshoot.nsn.us>
Subject: Re: Question on the Sammamish project

No season in fall 2021?

Thanks,

On Mon, Apr 26, 2021 at 7:26 PM Jason Schaffler
<Jason.Schaffler@muckleshoot.nsn.us<mailto:Jason.Schaffler@muckleshoot.nsn.us>> wrote:
Yes

Sent via the Samsung Galaxy Note8, an AT&T 5G Evolution capable smartphone

----- Original message -----

From: James Dixon - NOAA Federal <james.dixon@noaa.gov<mailto:james.dixon@noaa.gov>>
Date: 4/26/21 7:25 PM (GMT-08:00)
To: Jason Schaffler <Jason.Schaffler@muckleshoot.nsn.us<mailto:Jason.Schaffler@muckleshoot.nsn.us>>
Subject: Question on the Sammamish project

Hi Jason,

Are you proposing to conduct the Lake Sammamish electrofishing again from March 1 - June 30?

Thanks,

--
James Dixon
Sustainable Fisheries Division

NOAA Fisheries West Coast Region

360-522-3673

james.dixon@noaa.gov<mailto:james.dixon@noaa.gov><mailto:james.dixon@noaa.gov<mailto:james.dixon@noaa.gov
>>

--

James Dixon

Sustainable Fisheries Division

NOAA Fisheries West Coast Region

360-522-3673

james.dixon@noaa.gov<mailto:james.dixon@noaa.gov>